

CENTESIMUS ANNUS PRO PONTIFICE

Certificate Program in Catholic Social Teaching

Workbook Outline

The purpose of the program workbook/journal is to support your professional and personal discernment in applying Catholic Social Teaching. Specifically, it should aid you:

- in reflecting on the academic portion of the program and your spiritual experiences
- in evaluating your programs to help improve or create new diocesan action plans
- by acting as a post course resource

Section I. Introduction

- A. Welcome to the program
- B. Summary introduction of the CUA/CAPP program
- C. Outline of the week's schedule
- D. Housekeeping - considerations for housing, meals etc
- E. List of the speakers with brief bio
- F. List of participants with brief bio and professional contact info

Section II. Academic Program

- A. Introduction
 1. Listing of the Topics with Speakers
 2. Definitions of the 3 cornerstone principles
 3. Graphic presentation of the interrelatedness of other principles
- B. Daily Blocks
 1. Prayer Section
 2. Lecture Section
 - a. Introduction of Block Topic by CAPP/CUA with Quotes
 - b. Executive Summary & Outline from speaker
 - c. Blank pages for notes
 - d. Reflection Questions: End of lecture - one page for professional with reflections questions to be prepared by speakers and one page for personal with reflection questions by retreat director for intellectual and spiritual formation.

Section III - Action Plan

- A. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday - End of Day Reflections - 9:00 - 10:00 PM
- B. Thursday - Group Discussion Reflection - 7:30 PM - 9:00 PM
- C. Thursday - End of Day Personal Reflection - 9:00 - 10:00 PM
- D. Friday - 8:00 PM - 10:00 PM
 1. Appointments for consultations or partnering
 2. Outline for back home planning
- E. Saturday - End of Program Report 9:00 AM - 12:30 PM
Delivering back home action plan for bishop

Section IV – Resources

- A. Centesimus Annus Document
- B. Selected quotes from Pope John Paul II & Pope Benedict XVI
- C. Bibliography